LCWS10

Friendship Hotel, Beijing

June 30, 2010

Akira Yamamoto and Jonathan Bagger gave very nice summaries about GDE and ILC in general,

The journey to realizing a high energy electron positron linear collider is a long one. Only those who are willing to fight till the end can succeed.

LOC will upload all talks to our local computer,
Then to the official indico.

Workshop Proceeding

Proceedings will be published online using the econf system. There will be no paper version so that we do not contribute to the global warming. The instruction and templates will be placed on the proceedings page of the workshop web site. The deadline for submission is June 18th. Also, please note that it is the responsibility of parallel session conveners that the talks of the sessions be uploaded to the indico page.
